1586-1754	John & Greswolds		Greet Manor House and lands belonging, ¼ of rectory of Yardley and of tithes, oblations thereof, the Fast House, Fulforde Hall or Grove House, Paine's messuage and lands, Heath's messuage and lands, Wright's messuage and lands and lands called Little Riddings. Deeds of 1704 and 1746/1747 also refer to Shaftmore Farm. Some of this property formed the jointures of Anne Marshall on her marriage with Henry Greswold, clerk, 1668 and of Lettice Stanton on her marriage to Humphrey Greswold the younger, 1649. The manor house of Greet, the Riddings, and Shaftmore Farm were leased by members of the Greswold family to Thomas Walton in 1754 and to Robert Stick in 1746/1747; this property and the Fast House had been released by John Chetle, Anne his wife (nee Greswold), Henry Greswold her brother and John Hodgetts to Humphrey Greswold in 1704, the Fast House having previously been leased to Joseph Payton for 21 years in 1684/1685. The two documents of 1586 are recoveries of the manor of Greet. [Some of these documents have been endorsed and numbered by Henry Greswold but the bundle is an artificial one] Warwickshire Archives CR1291/273/1-9

1616	“Writing of the pestilence of 1616 Mr G. T. Lawley says : “Dudley did not lightly escape. That town is elevated it is true, but at the time to which are now referring it was surrounded by many swampy places, deadly marshes, and extensive fens. Pensnett, Nether-ton, Darby End, the greater part of Sedgley and Tipton consisted of undrained, unenclosed bog, devoid of rivers or even respectable streams to carry off the stagnant water.” The mayor of 1616 (Richard Foley), the Vicar (Henry Jackson) and Richard Finch (baliff) petitioned the Bishop of Worcester for assistance; it is even probable that the distress outside the town right through the marshes to Moxley was greater still) ^{xxi}

Collections of a History of Staffordshire

- Vol 1 Richard Hogges of Blymhill mentioned in a land transaction 1496 (p360) (Kingswinford Hodgetts possibly descended from him given Moreton pedigree??)
- Vol 2 John Hodgetts p17
- Vol 2 1754 “There was an estate in Blymhill and Brineton which may possibly have been the same with that which was formerly held by the Moretons, but which I am unable to trace back further than 1754, when Thomas Hodgetts, gent., occurs as a landed proprietor in Brineton. He was probably the purchaser of this estate. By will, dated 1st February, 1763, Thomas Hodgetts, of Ashwood Lodge, Co. Stafford , gent., bequeaths all those his messuages or tenements, farms, lands, and premises, situated in the parish of Blymhill, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto belonging, to his nephew Thomas Nott, and the heirs male of his body, and for lack of such issue to his nephew Samuel Nott, and the heirs male of his body, with remainder to his nephew, John Nott, and the heirs male of his body, with remainder to the heirs female of the bodies of his said three nephews respectively, and for default to Maria Kettleby, his wife's daughter, and her heirs and assigns for ever. He mentions his wife Maria Hodgetts, his sister Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Nott, clerke, and his brothers (-in-law) , John Keelinge, and Samuel Nott ; and he gives a sum of £5 to be distributed among the poor of Stirchley and Blymhill.” (see also pp 129, 144/5 for Kingswingford Hodgetts land). (as part of the Moreton pedigree between pp78/9)
