1537	Henry & Oliver	Sedgley court rolls: "The first entry in court rolls Henry Hodgetts of Hurst Hill handed some pieces of land to the lord of the manor, which were used for pasture. The land was listed as "Hurst Hyll et le Lymepytt". Lymepytt field was almost certainly south of what is now Clifton Street. The Hodgetts family were frequently included in the court roll. It is likely that they lived at the Flaxhall, later High Arcal Farm, which was to the south west of Tipton Road by High Arcal Drive. Henry Hodgetts and Oliver Hodgetts, along with William Bradeley were also listed as transferring a piece of land known as "The Parkfield" from one owner to another." http://www.historywebsite.co.uk/articles/Coseley/earlyrecords.htm (accessed 21/3/2022) Hurst appears to have been on the west side of the Black Brook. Although most of the area was in the wasteland of Pensnett Chase, a narrow strip on the east side was within an early-enclosed piece of land called The Lodge (home of a parker or forester). ^{xvi}

Whereas of late Arthur Ap Rice was bound by his deed obligatory, to Florence Lothor in the sum of £60 6s. 8d. for the payment of £40, of which £40 the said Arthur paid to the said Florence £30 ; and for non payment of £10 the rest of the said sum the said Florence sued a writ of latitat on the said Ap Rice out of the King's Bench and had him arrested, and the said Arthur, so being in prison, met your subject, desiring him to be his bail for his forthcoming at whose desire your subject became bound accordingly. After, the said Florence being a man [sic] of great craft, intending to cause your subject to pay the sum of £60 6s. 8d. not only declared against the said Ap Rice in the said court, but persuaded the said Ap Rice to be condemned in the said action in default of answer, promising him to take no execution upon the judgment but against your subject only. After the said judgment in the premises had, the said Florence and Ap Rice showed your subject that they were agreed, and the said Florence satisfied of his debt, and your subject giving credence to the same never looked further into the said matter, by reason whereof he was condemned by two scire facias , and thereupon your subject being at a fair in Coventry was arrested, by the sheriffs of Coventry, where he remained in prison 9 weeks, and was not released till he delivered into the hand of the sheriffs a pawn. So it is that your subject repairing to your highness to complain, at West Bromwich, co. Staff., the 20th August last, the said Florence and Arthur with other evil disposed persons in riotous manner, to the intent he should not so complain, made assault on him, putting him in great danger of his life, and daily lie in wait to murder him, for fear whereof he dare not abide in his native country. Therefore please your highness to grant your writ of subpena to be directed to the said Florence and Arthur, commanding them to appear to answer to the premises. ^{xxvii} (also National Archives)

14/11/1565	Richard, John, Anne, Agnes, Elizabeth, Margery, Wenefryde, Margaret	Bundle 60. No 71. ^{xliv} [Evaunce v Hering] "To Sir Nicholas Bacon, knight. 14 November 1565 Showeth unto your lordship your poor orators John Evaunce, Nicholas Hardwick, Elizabeth his wife, Morgan Cutler and Margery his wife, Wenefryede Hodgetts and Margaret hodgetts, that whereas Richard Hodgettes, grandfather to your said orator John Evaunce and father to your said oratrices, was seised in his demesne as of fee tail of divers tenements and lands in West Bromwich, Brierley, Segley and Wynoll (Willenhall) in co. Stafford, and had issue one John Hodgettes his son and one Agnes and the said Elizabeth, Margery, Wenefryde and Margaret ; after his death the premises descended to the said John as his son and heir. About two years last past the said John Hodgettes died without heirs of his body, and the said Agnes likewise died, by reason whereof the premises descended to your orator John Evaunce and to your said oratrices as co-heirs in tail of the said Richard Hodgettes, to wit, John Evaunce as son and heir of the said Agnes, and your oratrices as daughters and heirs of the said Richard. But now the said deed of entail and other deeds touching the premises have casually come into the possession of one Gellinges Hering and Anne his wife, who by colour of having them and of the great friendship of diverse gentlemen "in that countie" which are near allied to them, have taken possession of the said premises and refuse to permit your orators to enter the same. May it please your lordship to grant the Queen's writ of subpoena to be directed to the said Gellinges and Anne commanding them to appear to answer to the premises. The following pedigree, based on the above and kindly supplied by Rev. F. A. Homer, corrects (as to the inclusion of Ann Wyrley) the Hodgetts pedigree preceding page 79 in S.H.C. vol II, pt ii. Richard Sparry and Margeria (sic) his wife surrender Flaxalls Tenement at Sedgley Manorial Court 28 Nov 1595. Margery being referred to as one of the daughters and coheirs of Richard Hodgetts of Great Bridge. There is a further suit Hodgetts v Hodgetts (Bundle 97, No 58), in which the same four daughters are suing their sister-in-law." NOTES:
